

The Caribbean

The Caribbean is an all year sailing area for sailing beginners and those who are a bit more advanced. Set sail and let's go to paradise. There are probably no other waters with more ideal conditions for a sailing trip than those of the Caribbean. Calypso rhythms, Creole culinary specialties as well as sun and wind provide the frame for unforgettable holidays on the water.

The islands of the Caribbean are situated like pearls on a string between North America and Venezuela. Coral atolls with dream beaches, reefs with colorful fishes and volcanic Islands come one after the other. Luxuriant vegetation and green landscapes surrounded by turquoise waters will cast a spell on the observer.

Every island has its own peculiar character. We offer you sailing yachts with or without a crew from the northern Virgin Islands over the Leeward Islands surrounding Antigua down to Guadeloupe which is more to the south and the Windward Islands from Martinique to the Grenadine Islands.
Whoever has sailed here once wants to come back.

Through the opportunity of a one way trip you can experience a great number of the Caribbean islands. And the weather is almost always excellent with temperatures between 25 and 30 degrees Celsius.
The needed wind is blowing steadily. It is not necessary to travel during high season between March and December because the sailing season covers the whole year.
Our VPM-Bestsail bases are located on the islands Tortola, St. Martin, Guadeloupe, and Martinique.

The beauty of the landscape, the security of the waters, and the hospitality of the inhabitants make the Virgin Islands a favorite destination.
Here you will find small distances that will allow you to perform navigation on sight. The Caribbean is the ideal place for newcomers, families and those who like to enjoy.

For a trip to the Virgins, which are located on US territory, you need a visa.
