

Yachtcharter Canary Islands

The Canary Islands offer everything you can wish for as someone looking for recreation.
Doesn't matter if you're looking for untouched natural spots or worldly cities like Las Palmas on Gran Canaria, this region offers recreation for every taste.

Holidays on the Canary Islands can be excellently combined with a sailing trip and whoever likes to dive will certainly find his or her paradise here.

We hold bareboat yachts ready for you in Puerto Colon and Santa Cruz on Tenerife as well as in Puerto de Morgan on Gran Canaria.

The climate here is well described as constant spring. The summer is pleasantly fresh and the winter months are very mild. You may thus go swimming in the sea even on Easter or Christmas. Because of the clean air and the cristal clear water, the islands are known as a paradise of health.

Sail weather in Canaria:

The winds in the northeast, in the open sea, are very pleasant 3-6 Bft. ideal for many sailors. Around the islands near and to the Cape are calm but can also increase significantly and be quite a challenge in the summer (August) and winter (January / February) for beginners. Also you should take before sirocco and the harmattan in eight, which are frequently encountered in autumn and spring.
