

Yacht Charter Croatia Itinerary from Dubrovnik

In the kingdom of large islands (sailing in the south of Croatia)

Looking at the sea map offers fast information: In the southern part of the bay coast which is rich of islands, the Croatian Sailing area its domestic character. Large islands awaken the spirit of discovery - that is a good thing, because as reward some beautiful port cities will expect you. Croatia's south is famous among sailors.

The good flight connections to Split and Dubrovnik to the economic and cultural centers on the coast, are important and the coastal highway did the rest. Now the sailing goals are reachable, where you have to take time if you start from the further north. Here you can enjoy gems like the historic towns of Korcula and Hvar, marked by centuries of domination of the world power of Venice. The furthest Croatian island of Vis and Lastovo are already easy to reach in a week charter, depending on where you start. While a charter base on Murter offers you a trip to the Kornati islands with the archipelago Sibenik and the waterfalls of Krk, the bases Split and Dubrovnik have their focus on many other destinations. From Split or Dubrovnik many new destinations get into the focus. According to wind and weather. In addition to the above-mentioned destinations, there are on all the islands, a variety of coves and small towns where you can stay with the yachts in front of a restaurants or you can use one of the laid out buoys. This is usually free of charge, as long as the crew goes to dinner.

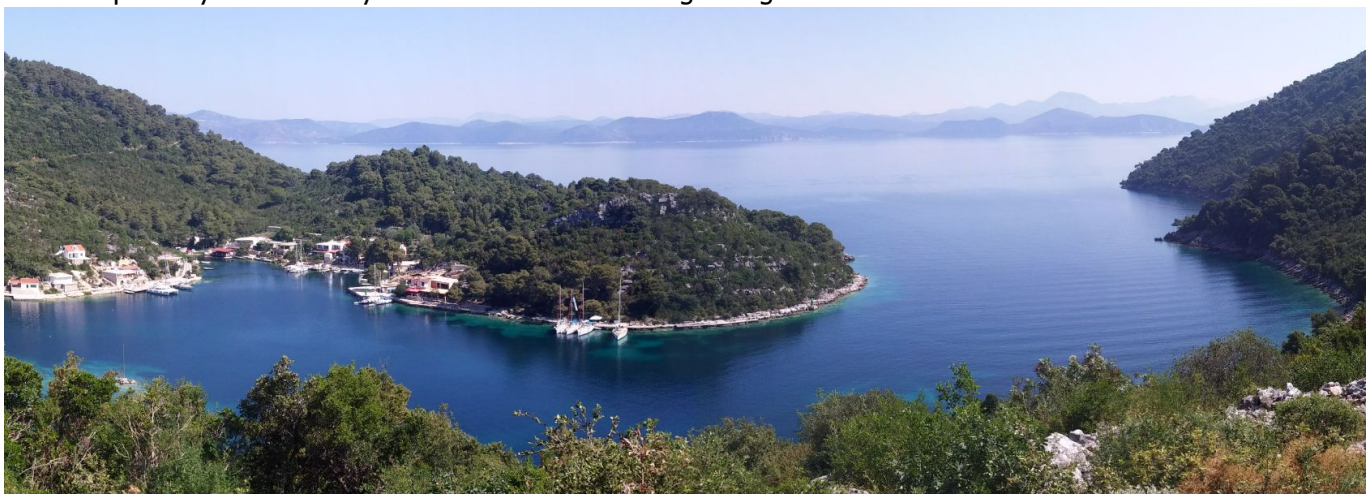

The Elafites

13 islands, directely in front of Dubrovnik. For sailors important Sipan, Lopud, Kolocep. Beautiful reasons to anchor, especially on the south side of Lopud and before the village Sudurad, island Sipan. In Sudurad there is also a small mordern marina for yachts. Not to forget: Plan sufficient time for the historic center of Dubrovnik. Other tips: Sipanska Luka and the harbor village Kolocep.

Island Mljet-West

Mljet reminds of an oversized guard rail for boat traffic in the direction of Dubrovnik. At the westside is a national park consisting of a lake and a monastery island. The fastest way to visit is from Pomena or Polace. On both places you find many restaurants with moorings for guests.

Korcula - Island of Korcula

A medieval city as a weir on a rocky outcrop in the sea – you have to see, roam or even better surround it. Marco Polo, the famous travel writer is named to be born here. The nearby marina hasn't so many moorings, you should arrive very early to get a place.

Lastovo

Together with the beautiful Vis, Lastovo once shared a fate: it was a naval base and argely isolated from the outside world. You can see the submarine bunker. In the bays, there are now numerous restaurants with private docks and a hotel-marina. A very popular destination.

Island Mljet-East

You could also baptize the island as restaurant-island for sailors. The westside and the eastside leave no wish unfulfilled. The bays of Prozura, Okuklje, Podskolj and Saplunara surpass almost with their gastronomic offerings. The agony of choice is very high!

Cavtat

The beautiful southern end of the croatian coast. Cavat is a harbour city with only a few moorings and in the approach path of the airport Dubrovnik. This does not harm its popularity. Known classics and mega yachts take course on this port.

The main distances:

- Dubrovnik - Mljet Island, western tip, 35 nautical miles
- Mljet western tip - Korcula / Korcula Island, 15 nautical miles
- Korcula / Korcula - Lastovo Island, 25 nautical miles
- Lastovo - Dubrovnik, 50 nautical miles
